MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD:

A career application was signed by [REDACTED] while he was on duty at Headquarters and was forwarded to the Career Staff through normal channels. In transit from Admin/DCI, the application became misplaced and to date has not been located. When the above situation came to my attention I initiated a thorough search but could find no trace of the lost application. When it became evident the application could not be found I talked with the Career Staff concerning the problem; they in turn agreed to send me a duplicate. Since [REDACTED] had departed for an overseas assignment, the duplicate application was forwarded to him through our regular pouch facilities. We are now awaiting its return. I regret the delay in [REDACTED] consideration for Career Staff membership since it is quite evident he intends to make the Agency his career and, consequently, would wish to obtain Career Staff membership at the earliest possible date.
